NOTE

All journalists requesting accreditation to cover the Festival or other EFF events are asked to file this application with our PR & Marketing Director. Approved accreditation entitles you to request interviews, access to EFF events, and limited access to public screenings. Submitting an application does not automatically guarantee accreditation. We CANNOT GUARANTEE your complimentary admission to public film screenings during the Festival. Admission to such public screenings and special events is limited and confirmed by advance arrangement or invitation only. When returning your application, please include sample clips with bylines.
